

Sustainable Food Festival

Sunday
September 27, 2009
1PM to 5PM
at South Coast Farms
San Juan Capistrano's
Organic Farm & Farmstand

Join Sierra Sage & Farmer George Kibby for our fabulous Sierra Club fall fund raiser at South Coast Farms in San Juan Capistrano. Enjoy Orange County's rural heritage while dining al fresco at this picturesque 28-acre organic farm. We will feast on a gourmet vegetarian meal prepared by Chef Mark Cleveland of Avanti Cafe.

Festivities include an heirloom tomato tasting, live music by The Saddleback Boys and a farm tour. George Kibby will speak on the environmental benefits of organic farming and sustainable foods.

Admission to the Food Festival is $30.00 adults/ $15 kids 12 and under. Make your reservations by sending a check (payable to Sierra Sage) and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Kaye Clarence, 10 Via Berrendo, Rancho Santa Margarita, CA 92688. A ticket with directions to the event will be mailed. Contact Kaye Clarence (949-709-2967).

Proceeds to benefit Sierra Club's Orange County conservation, outings, and youth programs.
